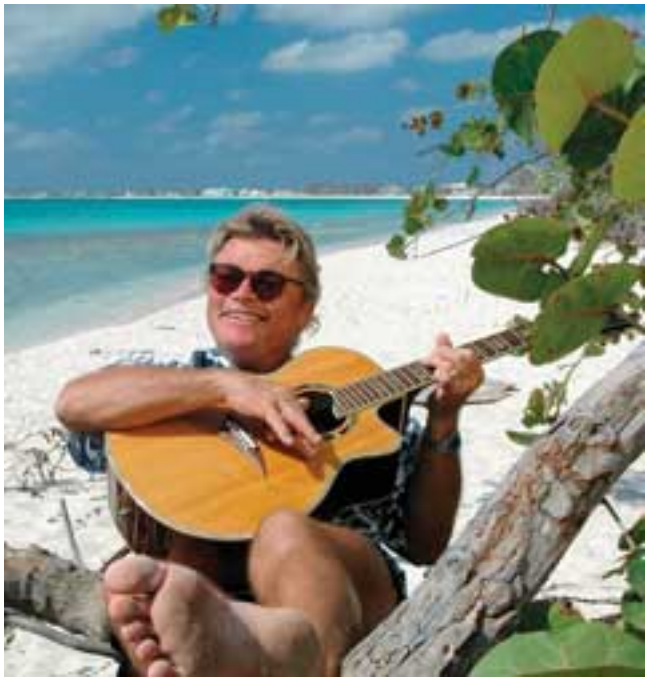
What's your poison? KBEC's poison this week is a nice cool margarita! It's all about that sweet drink that can calm you down at the end of a long day at work. Let these songs play in the background as you enjoy your own drink.



The Barefoot Man starts us off with his song "Margarita Daze" and makes another visit with "Please Don't Think". These two songs seem to go hand in hand, don't they?

Brent Burns makes an appearance with "Margarita Smile", followed by a little moonshine-of-a-tune called "Peach Moonshine Margarita" by Don Poobah Mealer. Don Mealer is more commonly known by Poobah, and has released a number of songs that sing the truth, such as "You're The Reason Our Kids Are Ugly".

"Frozen Drinks" is up next to cool things down, sung by Billy Mitchell. Jimmy Buffet stars once again with "Margaritaville".
