

1.

Margaritaville – Jimmy Buffett

Lost verse must be included.

2.

Toes – Zac Brown Band

2008 put Zac and his mates on the map. Hit #1 on country charts in 2009, was #29 at year's end.

3.

Living the Life Jimmy Buffett Wrote About – Brent Burns

Released in 1999. Witty, classic and oh so true.

4.

No Shirt, No Shoes, No Problem – Kenny Chesney

Released in 2003, written by Casey Beathard

5.

Key Largo – Bertie Higgins

One hit wonder from the 80s, but tune sticks in your brain.

6.

The Banana Boat Song – Harry Belafonte

Released in 1956 and was the first LP to sell 1 million copies in a year.

7.

Boat In Belize – Kelly McGuire

Album and song of the year in 2008 by Texas Music Association

8.

The Surfer Girl - "Sunny" Jim White

2010 release that represents the greatness of his songwriting.

9.

Barefoot'n – Jerry Jeff Walker

The Texas troubadour crones about the finer apparel in life. Who cares if it never charted? We love it!

10.

Sand In Her Shoe – Thom Shepherd

Since first hearing Thom at the Sixstring Music Fest in New Orleans during our 2007 journey, we knew he had the sound.

11.

Magic Chair – John Reno & the Half-Fast Creekers

The album cover alone is worth kicking back to.

12.

I Stole Jimmy Buffett's TV Guide – Don Middlebrook & Living Soul

A band from Western Michigan makes our list. A long way from Holland, MI.

13.

Coulda Woulda Shoulda – Greezy Joe & the Cheap and Easy Band

Never look back and forget the daily grind.

14.

Son of a Son of a Sailor – Jimmy Buffett & the Coral Reefer Band

Must have Nadir Shakoor's solo to make this song resonate in every man's soul (or other body parts).

15.

Rita's Going Wild – John Friday

Every guy's dream, finding the girl who wants to escape.

16.

Beachcombin' – KB Moore & Greg 'Fingers' Taylor

2007 release that still gets ready for the surf and sun days!

17.

Senoritas and Margaritas – Johnny Russler & The Beach Bum Band

What's not to like about this combo (the band) and yes, the drink and lady.

18.

Life on the Gulf – Jake and the Half Conched Band

We debated “Parrot Bay” or this one, guess we ran out of rum and woke up with this one on the list.

19.

Hang with Jimmy Buffett – Allen Toussaint

Just try and stop dancing. We dare you.

20.

Carribbean Cowboy – Gene Mitchell

Keep “Jamaican Me Crazy”, we'll take this one to the party and have everyone asking “Who is this?” Plus we give him ten points for the unique album title (Sail-ebration)

21.

Let's Talk Dirty In Hawaii – Jim Morris

Admit it, you have the t-shirt and tried the line at the Tiki bar.

22.

Conch Republic Song – Michael McCloud

Schooner Wharf, Key West. A must see...

23.

Songs You Know By Heart – PHINS

A collection of misbehavin' and a catchy riff makes this unforgettable.

24.

Key Lime Limbo (to a little Sunny Jimbo) – Rob Mehl

Some fine steel drum and the party gets started in a laid back style!

25.

Living On Key West Time – Howard Livingston and Mile Marker 24

The only way to tell time. Yes, we know others rank it tops, we just have our own voting style.

26.

Sandy Beaches – Delbert McClinton

An unmistakeable vocal rendition that will leave you looking for a rainbow and a woman as you walk down the next beach in life.

27.

Southern Cross – Eric Stone

While CSNY will always be #1, Eric's unique stripped down version inspires to sail the world over.

28.

Tropical Girl – Hanna's Reef with Jerry Diaz

We gotta show some love to our Texas Tropical sand roots. Who better to support the sand movement than Jerry and the Boys?

29.

Living Key West – Loren Davidson

Howard Livingston's influence is evident here, but those of us on the mainland get it too. We're jealous, Key West!

30.

Callin' In Gone – Jim Hoehn

A 2009 classic, the judges argued and eventually the boss won. We all like “Bad Day at the Beach” , but hey, he signs the paychecks.

31.

I Lobster but Never Flounder – John Reno and the Half-Fast Creekers

The lyrics alone make this a top song for explaining loves many twists and turns. A trop rock love song if there wasn't already one.

32.

Why Don't You Meet Me Down In Corpus – Gary P Nunn

The horns and accordian alone make this worth listening to, but Gary P. getting us to the beach is what it's still all about.

33.

Hammock Built For 2 – Donny Brewer

We always vote for “drifting away to the ocean” songs, this one's got us swaying to the music.

34.

Too Much Wishing, Not Enough Fishing – Mark Mulligan

This Mexican troubadour had so many great songs, we might do a list of just his and Brent Burns' greatest songs, but this one tops our list.

35.

Our Own Adventure – Nicky Fabbz

The tropics version of John Mayer, great steel drum on this island adventure..

36.

Rum Is a Many Blended Thing – The Coconut Boat Band

Yes, we're influenced by the adult beverage, yes we can listen to the song sober and... (don't tell the wives we came home late).

37.

Drill Baby, Drill – Jack Mosely

We normally avoid politics, but hey, this guy nailed it.

38.

Heaven's Out on the Water – Bob Karwin

Stripped down acoustic always ranks high, this one's got some great hooks and gets us to the ocean breeze.

39.

If Jimmy Buffett Ran the World – Leo Dean

At least somebody knows who we need to run the USA!

40.

Mexico (Things Never Change When You Are There) – Gary Seiler

Tejano meets Tex-Mex mixed with some trop rock and the blender spits this song out.

41.

Third Coast – Larry Joe Taylor

A songwriter's song if there ever was one.

42.

Please Don't Think – The Barefoot Man

Ok, guys listen to it in the garage, but admit it, you've thought about it every time you're on the boat.

43.

This Ain't Duval Street – The Boat Drunks

So we can't all get drunk in Key West every weekend, but we'd like to try, wouldn't we?

44.

It's 5 'o' Clock Somewhere – Alan Jackson & Jimmy Buffett

If we left this off, you'd all shoot us and think this list was totally made up of our favorites only. Even we appease the listeners every once in awhile.

45.

Laid-Back and Key Wasted – Jim Morris & The Big Bamboo Band

Been there, sold the t-shirt and still remembered to love “excess in moderation” (our salute to greenparrot.com)

46.

Thursday Afternoon at the Conch House Lounge – Jim Morris

No, this isn't a Morris love fest, we just like this songwriter's style and this speaks to our love of the Conch House and skinny dipping.

47.

There Ain't No Kokomo – The Island Fever Band

Quirky, irrelevant and yet so artistically on point.

48.

If I Had a Boat – Lyle Lovett

Texas Sand at its best, the gulf of Texas (they got the name wrong on the map).

49.

Blame it on New Orleans – Mac MacAnally

So, a little bluesy, a little jazzy but a lot on point!

50.

My Retirement Plan – Mike Broward

This one's a little too close to the bosses reality. Oh well, just know we all like this type of planning.

51.

Tin Cup Chalice – Jimmy Buffett & the Coral Reefer Band

You didn't think we could stop at 50 did you? We couldn't think of any other way to get Randy Newmann and Ry Cooder mentioned on this list!
