The Zac Brown Band is from Atlanta, GA, and has had several #1 hits on the Billboard Country Charts including such songs as "Chicken Fried" and "Colder Weather".

Kelly McGuire is from Clear Lake, TX, and his album "Boat in Belize" was voted the Album of the Year by the Texas Music Awards in 2008.

This Brent Burns song is from his 1999 album Livin' the Life. Burns is an icon of the Gulf Shores, AL, area and has made the Top 100 Billboard charts several times with songs like "Cheaper Crude or No More Food".

Jimmy Buffett is the undisputed king of Gulf and Western music and pioneered the Key West sound. This song is from his Beach House on the Moon album, which reached #8 on the Billboard Country Charts in 1999.

Don Middlebrook and Living Soul began their music career by going up and down the west Michigan coastline. They have recorded 8 albums since their 1991 debut.

"If I Had a Boat" is from Lyle Lovett's second album. Lyle, who needs no introduction, recalls trying to ride a pony across a pond, but preferring a boat - supposedly this is a true story, but this can only be confirmed or denied by Lyle himself.

Jim Morris's song is from his first album. This Georgia native has been called the perfect cross between Jimmy Buffett and Jerry Jeff Walker.
